

ROUILLARD

Always new,
always improved

In their constant quest to bring innovative solutions to the ever-changing work environment, our designers and craftspeople team up with local suppliers to create prototypes of their designs.

Always mindful of consumers' needs and tuned into the latest trends in commercial furniture, our team is at your service to help bring your vision to life and create your version of the perfect work environment. Our expertise, experience, and savoir-faire allow us to create the ideal blend of style, comfort, and utility, with just the right touch of elegance and refinement.
